

The easy way to wash clothes.

Take a cake of Lenox Soap, cut it into small pieces and dissolve these in three quarts of boiling water. Keep at boiling point until a solution is formed.

This solution will do better work than soap—and without any waste.

Rub the soap solution on the soiled parts, fold and roll each piece separately, pack in a tub, cover with warm soapy water, let stand over night, and in the morning you will find that the really hard work of washing—the rubbing on the washboard—is not half as hard as usual.

VERMONT NEWS

The Conference of the Schools of Vermont With the University This Week.

The annual conference of the secondary schools of the state with the University will be held March 9-11. In previous years the traditional languages and sciences have been discussed, but this year the subjects will be somewhat new. The conspicuous movement throughout the country is toward the practical. In Vermont, agriculture and home economics are being introduced into the schools, but the work has not yet become standardized and educators are feeling their way as best they can. The addresses at the coming conference will be given by men and women who are especially qualified by education and by experience to speak on their respective subjects. There is not one speaker who has not had practical experience in the line of work of which he speaks. The symposiums will be especially interesting and helpful to all who wish to know the real problems, possibilities, difficulties, and limitations of the subjects discussed. This conference seems to be peculiarly fitting at this time and should be attended not only by those teaching and preparing to teach these subjects but by every high school principal and superintendent in the state, for they will all have to face these problems sooner or later, and if mistakes can be avoided in the beginning much of the real trouble and money will be prevented. Saturday morning will be devoted to physical training. This topic also presents some important problems which are prominently before teachers at the present time. Methods of providing physical development for the many rather than over specialization for a few will be presented.

Delinquents Can't Vote.
In St. Albans last week at a meeting of the board of civil authority 255 names in all of delinquents, who had either refused or neglected to pay their taxes, had the undesirable letters "D. T." placed against their names in red ink, and will be prohibited from voting unless they pay up. The delinquents come from all classes, including business and professional men, as well as laborers, and present a surprising showing.

Another Granite Shed Burned.
A mysterious fire which started at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning in the granite sheds at Montpelier, which was occupied by the Juan De Colinares Co., and several other smaller concerns was put out after a damage of $15,000 had been wrought. The loss of the De Colinares firm is placed at $10,000 while the next heaviest is Felix Salana & Co., with $2,000. Eight or 10 other occupants of the shed lost from $200 to about $2,000. The cause of the fire is unknown but it is the general impression that it was set although the owner of the shed has no suspicion of anyone. This is the third mysterious fire in which granite sheds were destroyed in the past few months, all starting in the early morning hours and there is every indication that they have been the work of incendiaries.

Dr. Wiltse Dead.
Dr. Maurice J. Wiltse, director of the State Laboratory of Hygiene from 1901 to 1904 died March 2 in Burlington of locomotor ataxia after a long illness. He was born in 1854 in Richfield Springs, N. Y., and was graduated from Massachusetts school of Pharmacy and Vermont Medical college. He is survived by a wife and mother.

Cutters Out at Barton.
The granite cutters at Barton went out of the sheds Thursday because of the refusal of the bosses to grant an increase of ten cents a day and remove bushing hammers. The companies are ready to increase the pay but will not agree to eliminate bush hammers as they say the demand is unreasonable. The Barton cutters come under the Hardwick bill, but it is expected the local differences will be settled within a short time.

The Only State in the Union.
According to Miss Mary J. Corbett of New York, student secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association for New England, New York and New Jersey, Vermont is the only state in the union which has no city association. New Hampshire comes next with only one association.

A Diabolical Tale.
George Sumner of Rutland tells a most remarkable tale of cruel treatment which he received, so he claims, at the hands of Oscar Potter a man of unsavory reputation. On Jan. 21, he went with Potter to look at some cattle and afterwards to Potter's house. As the house was cold a fire was started in the stove and Sumner lay down on a couch to take a nap. He was awakened by flames which enveloped his feet and alleges that his companion poured kerosene on his feet and deliberately set fire to it. His feet were terribly burned and he was kept a prisoner for a week. When any one came Potter would hide him. Both the men are hard drinkers and were undoubtedly intoxicated.

Potato Show at Montpelier.
The potato show at Montpelier today under the direction of the agricultural committee of the board of trade bids fair to be a great success. The speakers will be Joseph A. DeBoer, A. M. Vaughan, Randolph, E. S. Brigham of St. Albans, and L. G. Dodge, potato expert of the department of agriculture at Washington. The purpose of the meeting is to disseminate practical ideas about the culture of potatoes so as to secure larger potatoes and more in the hill. Mr. Brigham raised 3000 tubers last year which were sent south for seed.

Champlain Memorial Architect.
The New York Champlain Commission has notified the architect of the monument committee meeting in New York recently and President J. M. Thomas, chairman of the Vermont Champlain tercentenary committee to erect a memorial to Champlain to be built by New York and Vermont, announces the selection of Hugh McLellan of New York as architect for the proposed memorial. The selection was made through competition. The monument which will be a light house will be erected the coming summer at Crown Point and will take the place of the present Crown Point light.

$15,000 Suit Ended.
The end of the suit against the Hooker, Corser & Mitchell company brought by the town of Brattleboro to recover $15,000, alleged to be due in the form of back taxes came Feb. 28, in the shape of a letter from the selectmen to Clarke C. Fitts, attorney for the company, discontinuing the action. It is alleged that the suit was instituted through spite.

North Troy Crossing Abolished.
The Vermont public service commission, with all the members present, decided Feb. 28 to order the abolishing of a dangerous grade crossing on Pine street in the village of North Troy. The plan contemplated is the building of an underpass about 100 feet south of the present crossing. The state is to be assessed 20 per cent, the railroad company 65 per cent, Judge F. E. Alfred appeared for the company and O. S. Annis for the town at the hearing. The same day a hearing was held in Newport on the fatal accident case of one Donette, who was recently killed in the local yards of the Boston & Maine railroad company.

Burlington Has Day Nursery.
A day nursery, plans for which have been under way for some time, was opened at the Neighborhood House, Burlington, Feb. 28. Miss Bernice McClintock will be in charge of the nursery, and children from one to five years old, whose mothers are employed during the day, will be cared for at a merely nominal charge. Mrs. McClintock will be assisted for the first week or two by a competent trained nurse and she will have a maid to help her permanently. The charge for each child is five cents a day and this includes care and food.

Once a Nurse in Burlington.
It has been learned that Miss Amelia M. Leonard, who is charged with the sensational jewel robberies in Boston and against whom even graver charges are hinted, received a part of her training at the Mary Fletcher Hospital in Burlington, but was dismissed from that institution after a brief stay when it was discovered that she was unreliable and untruthful. She was at the hospital from January 1902, until May of the same year and during that time committed a number of offenses of that nature. Miss Leonard waived examination in the Boston municipal court and was remanded to jail in default of $10,000 bail, on the charge of stealing jewelry and other articles to the value of many thousands of dollars from Miss Mary J. Lockwood, an aged patient at the Hotel Brunswick, who died a few days ago while under her care. It is possible that

The body may be exhumed as there is a faint suspicion of foul play connected with her death.

$10,000 Damages for Fall.
Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell of Barre has sued A. Tomasi of that city for damages of $10,000, claiming that because of a defective piazza at a house owned by him she fell 16 feet to the ground and received injuries.

Trusted Clerk Arrested.
Sanford J. LaPierre of Burlington a trusted clerk in the employ of F. G. Fletcher, and for several years his head salesman, was arrested last week on a charge of grand larceny. The sum named is $100 but it is alleged a much larger sum has been taken. Bail was furnished in the sum of $800.

Town's 150th Anniversary.
The town of Rockingham will celebrate its 150th anniversary soon. The town government was established in 1761 but it is not known when the first permanent settlement was made. A temporary committee comprised of T. E. O'Brien, J. C. Day, E. L. Walker, J. C. Dennison and J. H. Blakeley will attend to arousing enthusiasm.

Skeleton Found at Vergennes.
While workmen were engaged below the falls in excavating for the tail race for the Vergennes Power Company the other day they dug up portions of the skeleton of a man. The bones were found eight feet below the river bottom just below the falls on the west side. About the skull and the bones of the skull have so far been found. It is thought that the skeleton has been in the place where it was found for not less than 75 years and perhaps much longer. From the formation of the skull it is thought that it was that of an Indian. The lower jaw is of an extraordinary width and size.

Deranged by Death or Housekeeper.
Everett Wilder of Saxtons River, aged 70, committed suicide March 1, by hanging himself in a shed near his former residence. His mind was deranged by the death of his housekeeper, Mrs. E. A. Staley, last month. He had been residing with Mrs. Straw, and after dinner said he was going over to the old place for a walk. Not returning on time, a search was made, when he was found in a shed.

A Double Funeral.
Michael McMahon of Waterbury died Feb. 28, within 24 hours of the death of his wife. They were both born in Ireland and leave one child, Miss Mary McMahon. The funeral was a double one, at St. Andrew's church on Thursday.

The State Fair.
The dates of the state fair are Sept. 16 to 22. On March 25, Max Evans, president of the association, will give a dinner at the Hartford Inn to the officers of the association, the governor and others.

Bethel Granite Cutters Accept $3.25.
An agreement between the Woodbury Granite company of Bethel and its granite cutters was signed Feb. 28, thus preventing a suspension of business which was threatened because of the disagreement over wages in a new bill of prices. The agreement became effective next Monday. The cutters voted to accept $3.25 for a day of eight hours. They had demanded a minimum wage of 42 cents an hour, which would have made the scale $3.35 per day. The new agreement affects about 60 men at the local plant of the company, the number being rather small, although it is expected that as soon as spring orders come in the force will be much increased. The call for building granite is not good, but it is hoped that the monumental end of the industry will soon pick up.

$10,000 Fire at Richmond.
The saw mill, clapboard mill and box shop of the Missisquoi Lumber Co. at Stevens Mills, three miles north of Richmond were burned Feb. 25, causing a loss estimated at $10,000. The fire was discovered at noon and started in the saw mill from a cause which is not at present known. The principal stockholders are C. M. and F. R. Boright. The plant will be rebuilt. The insurance was $7,500.

Disappeared Last December.
Ira Maynard, son of Mrs. Stewart Maynard, of West Rutland, left Marble, Colo., ten weeks ago and has not been heard of since. No trace of his trunk has been found and all search by friends has been futile. He disappeared about the middle of December while on his way home. His mother, whose only support he has been, is in a state of great anxiety. He was unable to find any trace of him. He was about 28 years old, and had his name tattooed on one arm, and weighed 210 pounds.

Colored Man Commits Suicide.
Charles Bundy, colored, committed suicide at his home in Manchester, Feb. 28, by shooting himself with a shot gun. He had been employed at the Equinox house for many years as head porter. Drink is supposed to be the cause for the rash act. His wife was in bed at the time and hearing the report of the gun, arose and found her husband's body lying on the floor in another room. Death was instantaneous. The couple had no children.

Montpelier Seminary Closed.
As a precautionary measure and not because of an epidemic of scarlet fever is feared, Montpelier Seminary has been closed for over a week and most of the students and teachers have gone to their homes. If it is thought best not to close the institution for a week, the time will be taken out of the Easter vacation. Leland McKinley, of West Topsham, the student who is ill of scarlet fever, is not confined to his bed and no other cases have been reported.

Quick climatic changes try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils, nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are caused by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest remedy contains no cocaine, mercury, nor other harmful ingredients. The worst cases yield to treatment in a short time. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Concord.

Death of O. D. Cobleigh After a Short Illness.

O. D. Cobleigh passed away at his home in this village Wednesday morning, after an illness of 10 days of acute Bright's disease. Orville Douglas Cobleigh was born in Waterford, Aug. 8, 1843, a son of Reuben Boyce and Mable Adams Cobleigh. The revival services conducted by Evangelist A. M. Walker at the Methodist church have been very interesting and are to continue every evening until Sunday evening, March 12. Mr. Walker is a good speaker and illustrates his sermon on the board. Every one is invited to these meetings.

Rev. F. W. Lewis, district superintendent, was present last Sunday evening at the Methodist church and assisted in the service.

SUTTON.
George Mallory, who bought Riley Butterfield's place is moving on to the farm this week. Mr. Mallory is from Providence, R. I. He finds it different here in northern Vermont than in Rhode Island. No snow there but about four feet of snow here.

The evangelistic services are to be continued all of this week, services every evening and to close on Sunday, March 12, in the evening. Last Friday evening there was a large attendance and the service interesting.

Rev. Mr. Watt, the evangelist, held service at the Union House Sunday afternoon and there was a very good attendance. Jonathan Davis, widow of the late Jonathan Davis, who lived with Levi Bean in this town near West Burke, died Feb. 26, aged 88 years. The funeral was March 1 and burial was in the family lot at the East Ridge cemetery. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stoddard, one of the early settlers of this town. Her husband died some years ago. She leaves as near relatives a son, Oscar, and a daughter, Mrs. Allida Houghton of Bangor, Me.

The portrait of Rev. L. I. Harris, who was pastor of the church here 1858-1864, has been hung in the church recently with those of Revs. Jonathan Woodman and John Colby, who were early pastors in the place. The writer well remembers when Mr. Harris commenced his pastorate in September, 1858. He well remembers when the family of six children with their mother took their seats and the father went into the pulpit. His text for the first sermon is vividly remembered as follows: "Therefore came I unto you without ginsaying as soon as I was sent for, I ask therefore for what intent you have sent for me." All of the family are gone but L. B. Harris, of Lyndonville, Mass., and is one of the nine Free Baptist ministers who remains now rest in our cemetery.
